

Art of Soul!

presented by the Highland Arts Council

Hands-on Artistic Fun for All!

Dates: February 16, 23, March 2, 9, 16, 2023

Time: (Thursdays) 7 – 9 pm

Location: EvUCC, 2520 Poplar St, Highland, IL

The Highland Arts Council presents its seventh Art of Soul, a workshop of artistic fun for ages 13 to 103. Whether you're an artist, enjoy experimenting with art, or are simply an art enthusiast, Art of Soul has something for you!

Each workshop highlights a different art. Art of Soul costs $40 which includes the entire FIVE session experience and most materials! (If you attend the ukulele class, there is a $20 rental fee. If you'd like to purchase the ukulele after the class, it is $20 more.)

Session I: Paulette Todd, artist and teacher, will share her techniques for painting with pastels on February 16 from 7 pm - 9 pm. Paulette recently retired from teaching with her business for 19 years called Kids Art Club. She now showcases her artwork at the Highland Emporium where it is for sale. Paulette has also organized the Kids Kreations Area for Art in the Park for many years. She will be offering her line of note cards which are reproductions of her original art.

Session II: Graphite pencils can show the light and dark without color. On February 23, from 7 pm – 9 pm, Lynnette Schuepbach will help you to create an interesting floral drawing. Use simple shapes and the results are amazing. Lynnette has illustrated seven children's books and is president of Highland Arts Council.

Session III: Have you always wanted to play the ukulele? Tristan Coan and Angelina McLaughlin-Heil will show you how on Thursday, March 2 from 7 pm – 9 pm. Angelina teaches at and owns the Highland Music School. Tristan Coan is on faculty at Highland Music School. If you plan to attend this class, there is a $20 rental fee for the ukulele, and you must be signed up with the fee before that evening. Thanks to Halpin Music for sponsoring the class.

Session IV: Watercolor is another medium for painting that Paulette Todd, artist and teacher, will share on March 9 from 7 pm - 9 pm. Paulette recently retired from teaching with her business for 19 years called Kids Art Club. She now showcases her artwork at the Highland Emporium where it is for sale. Paulette has also organized the Kids Kreations Area for Art in the Park for many years. She will be offering her line of note cards which are reproductions of her original art.

Session V: Pop up notecards can be fun to share with your friends. Kathy Burns will show you how to make an decorate them on Thursday, March 16 from 7 pm – 9 pm. Kathy is an artist and retired art teacher for the Highland School District. She now focuses on her own art.
